FITZHUGH CORRECTION.—I find it necessary to correct certain statements in the Virginia Magazine of History and Biography, Vol. IX., p. 99.

It is stated that "Samuel, son of Peregrine Fitzhugh, married Helen Chisholm, and had issue: Henrietta, Katherine and Peregrine, who all died single, and Robert."

As Samuel Fitzhugh was my grandfather, and I have just made application to enter the Society of the D. A. R., you may readily see how awkward a reference to said magazine will prove.

I judge the mistake arose from the fact that my branch of the family removed to Maryland, when Colonel William Fitzhugh married, for his second wife, the Widow Rouseby, of Calvert county, Md., and Peregrine, of Revolutionary fame, was one of the sons of this marriage.

Will you kindly refer this corrected data to the Editor of the Virginia Magazine of History and Biography.

Samuel Fitzhugh, son of Peregrine, married Ellen Chisholm, of Annapolis, Md., and had issue: Alexander and Henrietta, who died single.

Robert Rose, who married Anna Hyde, in Georgetown, D. C., May 3, 1849, and has one son, Samuel Fitzhugh, now living in New Orleans, La.

Peregrine Archibald, who married Sarah Luckett, of Loudoun county, Va., November 23, 1859, and three children of this marriage are now living: Ellen, single, living in Washington, D. C.; Nannie, the wife of Lucien Powell, now living in Washington, D. C.; Peregrine, who married Eva White, of Michigan, and lives in Chicago, Ill.

The two male representatives of this branch of the family are: Samuel Fitzhugh, office So. Pac. R. R., New Orleans, La., and Peregrine Fitzhugh, with Marshall Field & Co., Chicago, Ill.
